TOBACCO MARKETS. RICHMOND TOBACCO EXCHANGE.

SEPTEMBER 7, 1876. Since our last weekly review of the Richmond to sacco market nothing has occurred in its condition worthy of special note. The offerings have continued pretty full, and the prices for all desirable grades have been well sustained. During the week several lots of tolucco have sold as high as $71. londescripts are in a measure neglected, and prices

The breaks during the week comprised 1,307 hegsheads, 194 tierces, and 44 boxes. The inspec tions from October 1, 1875, to September 1, 1876. aggregated 45,899 hogsheads.

The breaks to-day comprised 332 hogheads and 23 tierces; the offerings at auction on 'Change were 127 packages, of which 54 were taken in, and the remainder sold at prices ranging from $6 to $60. The quotations are as follows:

The quotations are as follows:

LYNCHBURG.

There is but little change in the market since our last report. Prices remain about the same. We last report. Prices remain about the same. We therefore continue quotations:

Primings, inferior and common, 50c.@$1.25; good and fine, $1.50@$3; kngs, inferior and common, $4@5; good dark and red, $5.50@$7.50; medium and good yellow, $6@$8.50; thre yellow smoking, $9@$13; extra yellow smoking, $14@$25; leaf, inferior and common, $5.50@$7; medium good and mixed, $7.50@$8.50; good dark and red (short), $8@$10; good dark and red, $10.50 @$11.50; fine dark and red, $12.50@$16; good dappled wrappers, $10@$13; fine dappled wrappers, $14@$20; common and medium bright, $7@$9.50; common bright wrappers, $10@$13; good yellow wrappers, $14@$22; fine yellow wrappers, $23@$35; extra yellow wrappers, $38@$65.—Neves, 6th.

The market vesterday was very dull and prices drooped on all grades. The offerings are not as heavy, and the quality generally inferior; the receipts are much lighter, and we are of opinion the crop is almost marketed, though the stock on hand sampled and unopened is larger than it has been for several years. We report the market dull at quotations: Bright fancy, $15@$55; good leaf of decided character, $16@$18: good leaf, dark, $11@$13; medium grades of leaf, $7@$9: lugs, long and leafy, $6.50@$8: lugs, common, $5.50@$6; primings, $2 @$3.50.—Index-Appeal, 6th.

CINCINNATI.

Prices have been well maintained during the past week for all useful kinds of cutting stock, but are again weaker for the nondescript sorts, which still constitute a large portion of the offerings at auction. Receipts continue liberal, though it is generally conceded that the crop of 1875 is now fully three fourths in. Ohio seed is steady, without any change in prices. The total offerings at auction for the week were 1,151 hogsheads at 207 boxes—as follows:
